

Modernization Kit No 4750304 Spray Header Flushing Kit

The Spray Header Flushing Kit is designed to purge the water spray headers of foreign matter. Individual header flushing valves provide the maximum protection against plugging in the system. The best flushing is a short pulse which can be done while the pasteurizer is in operation. The flushing can be manual or automated using your PLC.

All sizes available.

Please contact your Barry-Wehmiller Customer Service Department for detail.

